CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The college follows the syllabus of Assam University (the affiliating University) for T.D.C. (BA. & B.Com.) programmes. To ensure effective delivery of prescribed curriculum, all HODs of the college distribute their concerned curriculum between/ among the faculties of the department and prepares individual lesson plan based on the given curriculum. Classes are taken systematically as per the class routine prepared for each programme at the beginning of every academic session. Teachers also use TLM (both manual and electronic) to facilitate effective classroom communication and lesson delivery. Besides, all teachers maintain Teachers' Diary to document their daily academic activities in and outside the classroom. At the onset, our college conducts meetings with the HODs before commencement of classes and internal assessments as well as Internal Quality Assurance Committee (IQAC) to discuss and develop plan of action for effective enactment of the curriculum. IQAC monitors the academic activities on regular basis to ensure the execution of time table and also monitors implementation of academic calendar and teaching-learning process.

But this year, due to covid-19 pandemic, the traditional process could not be followed because Government guidelines and SOPs were maintained strictly.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Before the commencement of each semester, Assam University, Silchar (the affiliating University) notifies the holiday's list and institution prepares an academic calendar for all the programmes, which contains the date of commencement, last working day of the semester, internal assessment schedule and dates for semester end examinations. Our college follows the calendar strictly and plans all its activities including the conduct of internal evaluation. College calendar of events includes details like the total of working days and holidays. Departmental Heads closely supervise and monitor the completion of the syllabus as per the lesson plan prepared by the faculty members. Internal assessment test is a part of the Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) of students. The internal assessment test timetable is prepared by the Examination Committee and is published to stakeholders and conducted as per the schedule.

The Principal, through the academic committee meetings, frequently review the semester programmes and provides suitable suggestions. In case of revision of academic calendar by the University, institute incorporates the necessary changes accordingly. But for the session 2020-21, due to Covid-19 pandemic all the Government guidelines are followed including Government SOPs.

1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

Our college celebrates days of National and International importance as Republic Day, Womens' Day, No Tobacco Day, Teachers' Day, Anti Terrorism Day, International Yoga Day, etc. These celebrations nurture the moral, ethical and social values in the students. The college has Women Cell & Grievance Redressal Cell to provide counseling to the students, promote gender equity among students and also deal with related issues of safety and security. The college campus is under CCTV surveillance. There are separate Girls' and Boys' Common room (in-campus) for providing recreation facilities to all students. The college offers Environmental Studies (EVS) course for both Arts and Commerce programme under Assam /university syllabus to insert values and awareness among students about the importance of environment and ecosystem.

Besides, the college has a water body inside its campus for rain water harvesting which is used for gardening, toilet & cleaning purposes. The college has a tradition of plantation of saplings in all occasions comprising the Earth Day, World Environment Day, NSS Day and so on. Keeping in view the environmental aspect, the college has its Eco-Club and Campus Beautification & Aforestation Cell, IQAC.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners

The various departments of the college assess the learning levels of the students and organize special programmes for advanced learners and slow learners. Advanced learners and slow learners are identified on as per their responses in the class room as well as their performance in the internal examinations. Advanced learners are encouraged to ask their concern freely and frequently with the teachers. They are encouraged to study recommended advanced textbooks for their advanced studies. Online resources are made available to them in order to strengthen their subject based knowledge. They are motivated to participate in seminars, workshops and group discussions to enhance their knowledge and build confidence in them.

The departments use monitoring and mentoring to keep track of slow learners' progress. Along with teachers some advanced learners are encouraged to mentor weak students and help them with explanation and notes. The department organizes remedial classes for slow learners, where in they are encouraged to identify and overcome their shortcomings. Revision classes and counseling sessions are held and additional teaching is taken up by the faculty members if required. The department provides atmosphere for conductive learning to both slow and advanced learners.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Students are encouraged to participate in field visits and surveys to supplement the teaching process and provide experiential learning. . The various departments of the college plan and organise educational tours and field visits for students to enable them to view the world from a different and new perspective outside the scope of a monotonous curriculum.

In participative learning, teachers make classes as interactive as possible. Group discussions under the guidance of teachers are conducted; where in the ideas and views of each student is explored. Every department's teacher facilitates learning by allowing each individual student to comprehend at their personal level by ensuring their involvement in class activities so that they can absorb and grasp information at their own pace. The students are encouraged to participate in activities and camps of NSS in order to inculcate in them a sense of social obligation and responsibility for social and community welfare.

Internal assessments in the form of assignments are so planned so as encourage students to work independently by researching on the given topic and thus enhancing writing skills and inculcating interest in research activities. Further, the assignments are presented by the students in front of the entire class.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT enabled tools for effective teaching-learning process. Write description in maximum of 200 words

The college is well equipped with some basic digital infrastructural devices such as computers, digital smart boards, zerox machines, printers, etc.

During the period of pandemic the institution switched to some digital initiatives in teaching learning and evaluation. All the departments adopted the best ways to set up a virtual classroom for the students to facilitate maximum syllabus coverage and keep the students engage with the system. Some of the popular ICT tools, which have been used by the various departments to make the teaching learning experience more interesting, are WhatsApp messenger, Google Meet, Zoom, Gmail, etc. WhatsApp messenger has been mostly used to offer the handwritten notes whereas Google meet and Zoom have been used to deliver lectures and have an interactive session with the students in virtual platform. Besides this, Gmail has been used as a medium to collect online assignments from the students as and when required. Online quizzes and unit tests have also been organized frequently for students using Google Forms.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

In order to ensure transparency, the entire evaluation procedure of internal assessment including rules and regulations of the affiliating university are well communicated to the students. A detailed academic calendar, prepared by the institution, is followed which is made available in the notice board of the college as well as in the college website.

Evaluation method is designed in such a way that the periodic performance of the student can be checked and reported. Model questions and marking scheme is explained by considering the previous years' Final Examination question papers.

Internal assessment comprises of two periodical tests and student attendance for all the departments of the college and assignments for practical papers in case of commerce department only. Proper routine is prepared for the unit tests and the tests are conducted under the supervision of invigilators. After evaluation, marks and assessment copies are shown to the students with prior suggestions and also to bring out discrepancies if any. All the records and data bank of attendance in internal examinations, question papers, answer sheets/copies, summary of marks sheets, are properly maintained by the teachers for academic monitoring/academic audit.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

The college has a well organised mechanism for redressal of internal examination related grievances i.e. a transparent, time-bound and efficient method is being followed in dealing with internal examination related grievances. The teacher concerned evaluates the papers within a week of conduction of test. The evaluated answers sheets are then shown by the teacher to students in class and individual grievances are undertaken as well as the mistakes are pointed out that contributed to the obtaining of below expectations if any. This provides a transparent way for students to reflect on their strengths and areas of improvements. This further enhances the transparency and rapport between faculty members and students. Marks of both the unit-tests is calculated and displayed in the notice board at the end of the 2nd Unit Test and if any discrepancies are reported by the students related to the marks of Unit Test-1 that displayed earlier or any other, then it is resolved by the concerned subject teacher immediately. If the case happens to be a matter which cannot be resolved at departmental level then the concerned student can approach the Grievance Redressal Cell, IQAC and get the matter redressed as per requirement.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

In the very beginning of the academic session, a Teachers' Council meeting is held, wherein the program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes in general are discussed. In this very meeting, a resolution for departmental meeting is passed and accordingly all the concerned departments of the college held their departmental meetings before the commencement of classes and have an in-depth discussion on their concerned programme and course outcomes. The departments also plan out the mechanism for communicating the same to the students.

As per the proceedings of the departmental meetings held during this academic session 2020-21, the teachers came up with the following mechanisms for communicating programme and course outcomes to the students : classroom discussions, parent -teachers meeting, etc. Besides, outcomes are also displayed in the classrooms for the convenience of the students.

INFRASTRUCTURE AND LEARNING RESOURCES

4.1 - Physical Facilities

4.1.1 - The Institution has adequate infrastructure and physical facilities for teaching- learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment etc.

With the introduction of CBCS by the Assam University, Silchar from the Academic year 2018, the college felt the infrastructural facilities inadequate as the college has only 15 numbers of classrooms available where in the classes for Higher Secondary are also to be adjusted. The total of the college covers 22015 square fit. Spread in two sides of PWD Road and there is adequate space available for construction of additional classrooms.

Classroom: The college requires more classrooms to accommodate the increasing number of students but as there are only 15 numbers of classrooms; the college has to adjust the increasing number of students within these classrooms. The college provides the requirements of classrooms e.g.: desks, bench, chairs, blackboards, chalk, etc.

Laboratory: There is a Computer Laboratory in the college. In the laboratory there are 14 numbers of Computers in working position at present. Students go in regular basis to practice the computers in Computer Laboratory. The students of commerce stream are generally using the computers.

Computing Equipment: The college has installed the computer in the office in 2005/2006. At present all the official activities are including Admission, Examination, Preparations of Acutance etc. are being done through computers.

6.2 - Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 - The institutional Strategic/ perspective plan is effectively deployed

The College since its inception in 1964 has always had a strategic plan to achieve its vision and mission and guide it in the path of growth and development. Despite its rural location the college successfully imparted education to economically weaker section of the society and first learners of this part of the state.

In 1990s the college tremendously improved in all the areas and in 2004 the college has accredited by NAAC with C++.

According to the recommendation of the NAAC Peer team, the college focused on improving quality education thereby encouraged the faculty to undertake research activities and today the college has nearly 70% of faculty members and the college aims it to increase to more than 90% in the next 5 years.

To impart quality education as per the academic calendar issued by the University, suggestions are sought from the faculty members. They are finalized by the HoDs of all the concerned departments in consultation with the faculty members. Thereafter it is discussed in the HoDs meeting with the principal.

Moreover, the college signed MoUs with S.K Roy College, Katlicherra and S.S College, Hailakandi for faculty exchange which will eventually benefit all these three institutions.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

Performance appraisal policy is the way to ensure the performance oriented work environment in the organization. Lala Rural College makes efforts to improve the academic training and the research by encouraging the faculty members to participate in Orientation programmes for Refresher courses, Short term courses, Workshops on ICT and many other such activities organized by different universities and colleges.

Teaching staffs:

Ø Promotions are based on the PBAS Performa for UGC CAS that is based on the API score.

Ø The institution undertakes a wide range of activities besides academics through various cells and committees and accords appropriate weightage for these activities in their overall assessment.

Ø The PBAS Performa filled by the faculty members is checked and verified by the heads of the departments followed by the Coordinator IQAC and the Principal.

Ø Promotions of faculty members are based on their API score and are required to appear before the DPC formed by the affiliating university through the Director CDC.

Non-teaching staffs

All non-teaching Staffs are also assessed through annual confidential reports and annual performance appraisal. These systems help in the evaluation of performance of employees, in motivating them, analyzing their strengths and weaknesses and ensuring better performances.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

The college has been adhering to the idea of gender equality by giving equal consideration to the girl students honoring their identity and ethnicity irrespective of caste, religion and gender. Lala Rural College boasts of a women's cell that creates awareness among the students enlightening them about women empowerment. This cell notifies posters and other circulars of the government time to time informing about stringent measures against women harassment and ragging. The college authority including the Women's and Anti-ragging Cells even takes their parents into confidence while dealing any kinds of problems faced by the girls if necessary. In addition, N.S.S. unit of the college sensitizes them about how to cherish the values of equality, social justice and tolerance.

Moreover, the college has installed several CCTV cameras inside the campus and computer monitor is kept in principal and IQAC coordinators room. The student counseling center counsels students to keep them psychologically strong and confident enough to overcome any types of depression they face in life. The college has provided separate common room for girl students which are equipped with items like carom, badminton, chess, table chair, mirror etc. The college has provided toilet and washroom separately for girl students.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations:

values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The college organizes various programs from time to time for the promotion of constitutional values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens. The college designs various activities to create awareness about the national identity and symbols. Our college celebrates 13th August, the Martyrs day of Bir Tikendrajit every year. On this day, the college flag is hoisted by the Principal who delivers the speech befitting the occasion followed by cultural programmes.

The college celebrates 15th August every year. On this day national flag hoisting ceremony is organized followed by the recitation of the national anthem. The importance of freedom and glory of Indian freedom struggles is highlighted through speeches. Different cultural programmes and events are performed which aim at highlighting the constitutional spirit of liberty, equity, justice and fraternity.

Every year on 26th January, our college celebrates Republic Day with great gratification to mark the occasion. This day highlights the importance and significance of preserving constitutional rights and values.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Clean and Green Campus Initiative

1. Objectives of the Practice:

The following are the objectives of the practices:

1. To create awareness and encourage among the students to keep environment of the college clean and green.
2. To make students aware of the importance of environment and its problem area.
3. To educate and create a sense of responsibilities among the students.

3. The Context

To fulfill our objectives, we should motivate staff and students of our college to take clean and green initiative like cleaning the campus, minimum use of plastics, planting saplings in garden areas.

4. The Practice

This best practice is significant step in involving the students to make the college clean, green and in term creating awareness about the conservation of the environment. The campus practices include the sweeping and mopping all hard surface flooring. Cleaning the wall, windows and other surfaces of rooms and building throughout the campus.
